

Who Is An Anti-Semite?

According to a recent study from TAU's Kantor Center for the Study of Contemporary European Jewry, leading organizations from 28 countries have endorsed the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance's (IHRA) definition of Anti-Semitism since it was introduced in 2016. But recent events during Israel's "Guardian of the Walls" military operation in Gaza suggest there's still work to be done. We invite you to join the top researchers from around the world for a special webinar on Wednesday – just visit the 'Upcoming Events' for more details.

In other news, after last week's celebration of the opening of the Israeli Pavilion at the 2021 London Design Biennale, designed by a team from TAU's School of Architecture, this week we were excited to host Israeli Ambassador Tzipi Hotovely, as she visited 'The Boiler Room' and met with the Pavilion's designing team.

In our webinar library, you can now find a special London Design Biennale webinar on the effects of the latest digital trends on how we interact in the real world, featuring two TAU alumni: Lior Kantor from the Pavilion's design team and Roi Levin from HQ Architects. Please make sure you visit the 'Support us' section of this email to find out how YOU can help Israel's future builders and designers.

Slowly but surely, we are returning to normal life, and we hope to meet you again at one of our upcoming events.

Stay safe and Shabbat Shalom,
