HAGAI LEVI, WRITER, DIRECTOR
AND CO-PRODUCER
SCENES FROM A MARRIAGE, HBO

Don't miss this opportunity to join Tel Aviv University (TAU) Trust on Wednesday 15th June for our signature event, Night at the Movies, where Golden Globe award winner and TAU Steve Tisch School of Film and Television alum Hagai Levi will share his insight into Israel's many cinema and television triumphs, including his own recent hit Scenes from a Marriage starring Jessica Chastain and Oscar Isaac. Hagai's other successes include The Affair, Our Boys and In Treatment (Be Tipul). These dramas take their place alongside other popular Israeli favourites affiliated with graduates of the Tisch School including Fauda, Homeland, and Tehran and are stellar examples of Israel's cutting-edge TV & Film exports.

On the evening, after a wine and canapé reception at the beautifully renovated BAFTA, Hagai will premiere a Director's Cut of his graduation film, Snow in August, following a short student film from the Tisch School. We are delighted that Dan Patterson, Olivier nominated playwright, writer, producer and creator of Mock the Week and Whose Line is it Anyway, will be the evening's moderator.

With only a week to go, please secure your seat at BAFTA and join us for this exciting event showcasing another side to Israel's largest, most comprehensive and most dynamic research and teaching institution in Israel!

50 years
of creation

Founded in 1972, the Steve Tisch School of Film and Television offers unique and diverse opportunities for developing proficiency in film and television production and for studying film history, theory, and criticism. Many of Israel's most prominent filmmakers, scholars and critics are among its graduates; student films produced in the school are regularly screened and win awards in prestigious international festivals.
